CUNNINGHAM'S CHAPEL

This Chapel has been spoken of, and justly so, as the most beautiful and complete in America.

This is merely an example of the many thoughtful ideas originated for your convenience in your hour of sorrow.

At that time, when the mind is in a chaos, so to speak, it is comforting to know that the many details in connection with a funeral are being looked after just as you would have them attended to.

This Chapel is free, as are the services of an organist, and the charges made for my services are quite nominal; as a matter of fact, your desire governs the price—to a very great degree.

No Longer Any 'Home Life'

We note several articles in papers and magazines on the passing of the home life, and we wonder how people can wonder at it. There can not be much of a home without children, and here in the city we can't get a home if we have children. From the good old fashioned home we went to the apartment which was gradually reduced in size until it is little more than a series of nooks and cubby holes placed much like merchandise on a series of shelves, and there is no place for the kiddies, or children. Then the evening about the lamp, the reading and studying have given place to the club or the movies; or a meeting for culture, refinement or education some place away from home. Every tendency is toward hotel life or a sort of semi-public existence that is death to home influences and surroundings. The family sometimes gets together at meal time, but only for a short visit and in many homes even the meal times are such that all are not assembled. True, we have the purity of fine damask linens, the glitter of beautiful cut glass, silver, and plate, but where is the good old home with Father at the head of the table and Mother at the foot, serving their happy brood? The strenuous times; the increased prices of everything pertaining to a home; and the general mad rush to get back to business or amusement which we make a business of, is killing the homes, and with them the warm family ties, the sacred love of family, and sometimes the love of God that goes with it. We must of necessity get back to home life, but how?

The New Neighbor

Having inspected every stick of furniture they brought in, and the style of clothes the woman wears, and the name of the car the husband drives, all of this of course from behind the drawn curtain, it is up to us to find out if we may properly associate with them and swap high priced sugar and gossip. The new neighbor is somewhat at a disadvantage until they prove themselves, for all are looked on with suspicion. You would just like to borrow the pattern for the cute little dress their little girl wears, but then we might be expected to speak to them civilly if we do. Then their "car" is a higher grade than your own and you wonder if it is all paid for, and you don't see how they can afford it. They don't go to "our" church, so they can't amount to much anyway, but as the woman and man both play golf it might be nice to ride out to the links in their car and save gasoline. Well, we will keep our eyes and ears and possibly our mouth open and we may learn all about them, if their maid is a good gossip, so we must perforce just wait.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

New troops are being organized from time to time. One was organized recently at the Englewood Y. M. C. A. rooms with which the following men were registered as troop committeemen: Mr. Van V. Lain, Mr. Ernest E. Hart and Dr. A. L. Morris. A new troop will be organized in a few days at the Community Center at the Lewis-Champlain School, the Englewood Presbyterian Church, the Town Hall at Clearing and the Chicago Lawn Presbyterian Church.

Registrations are beginning to come in for the Scout Camp of the South West District for this summer. From the outlook, we judge that before many days the entire season will be reserved. It behooves all Scouts who are thinking of going to register at once.

May Have to Reduce Size of Paper

The scarcity, in fact the impossibility to get print paper any way suitable for newspaper work is compelling the suspension of many papers. We are keeping in the ring by great effort and at financial loss, but we are still in the ring. We have some paper somewhere on the railroads and we are moving the earth and part of the First Ward to secure it before our next issue is due. We will come out in some form if only four pages and we bespeak the leniency of our readers and advertisers until this crisis is over.

Harry Carey

In a Story of the Old Mining Country

"Overland Red"

Carey is giving us some great pictures these days. "Overland Red" goes over the top as a human interest drama punctuated with all that is best in the way of outdoor stuff. Humor, pathos, excellent riding and good suspense are mingled in the plot, which was a good one in the first place. The detail shows imagination and is so delightful that one is constantly reminded of the fact that imagination is one important thing so many directors lack.

Also Mutt & Jeff and News Weekly

Saturday Matinee Extra

"ELMO THE FEARLESS"

Sunday and Monday, May 9th and 10th

Constance Talmadge

In a Picture that Will Make You Laugh

"In Search of a Sinner"

The grouchiest mortal on earth couldn't resist the laughing lure of this bright gingery production. It is a screen comedy of infinite jest and sparkle, sufficiently daring, yet never touching the risque verge, alive with smart action, always holding its interest and terminating as happily and mirthfully as it begins. The heroine role suits Constance in every detail. A merrier young widow never existed and yet through all escapades that heedless and charming creature seems convincing and natural.

THE USUAL ADDED REELS WILL ALSO BE SHOWN

Tuesday and Wednesday, May 11th and 12th

NORMA TALMADGE

In Her Latest Success

"She Loves and Lies"

A comedy romance in which lovely Norma Talmadge plays a dual role of her husband's matronly wife and his young and vivacious affinity.

John Barrymore

in

"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"

It's hardly necessary to tell anyone the story of this wonderful picture, which in novel form has probably been read by everybody the world over. Come and see the film version and refresh your memory.

COMING

The Beautiful Debutante of the Stage and Screen

Constance Binney

In a Delightful Story of Smiles and Tears

'The Stolen Kiss'

A picture to hold your close attention from beginning to startling climax. Based on Lucile Van Slyke's novel, "Little Miss By-the-Day." A photodrama that is breath-taking in its surprises, heart-warming in its romance; captivating in its elusive, penetrating charm.

COMING

Cecil B. De Mille's

Sprightly Exposure of Boudoir Secrets

"Why Change Your Wife?"

With Gloria Swanson, Thomas Meighan and Bebe Daniels

To Husbands Who Have, and Husbands Who Have Not

Whether or not you have ever changed your wife, it will pay you to see how DeMille answers the great question of modern life.

Harvard

A feature of the Harvard theatre now is the par excellence of the music. Not only is the appropriate music of the screen played, but also artistic selections that are drawing many plaudits from the appreciative audience. Some of the solo work is especially worthy of mention and lovers of good music certainly enjoy the work of the symphony orchestra at this popular house.

There is a summery atmosphere at the Harvard theatre this week, the pretty cinema house having been "house cleaned" and decorated to the doors and everything put in excellent shape for the season. Manager "Jimmy" Costin has been hustling as usual and offers for the coming week a program of unusual attractions.

Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, matinee and night, they offer the idol of the screen and stage, Alice Brady, in a powerful picturization of Owen Davis' famous stage play, "Sinners." An intensely dramatic story dealing with the temptations of city life, its pitfalls and snares, and the ultimate triumph of good over evil. Miss Brady created the role on the speaking stage and appears in the same part on the screen. Also a scream 2-part comedy, Sidney Smith's "The Gumps." Saturday matinee only Elmo Lincoln in "Elmo the Fearless."

Sunday, May 9th, continuous from 2 to 11:30. Attraction extraordinary. Maurice Tourneur presents his new super production, "The Broken Butterfly," from the book, "Marcene," by Penelope Knapp. A dramatic masterpiece pulsing with melody. The story of a great love and a great sacrifice pictured in the tense dramatic portrayal of a master. A fluttering wild thing of beauty broken on the altar of love, sunk in the depth of despair, and brought back to a last free glorious moment. Also a scream 2-part Sunshine comedy. Pathe News and matinee only, Jack Dempsey in "Daredevil Jack."

On Monday and Tuesday, May 10th and 11th. Thomas H. Ince presents Enid Bennett in "The False Road," a Paramount Artcraft picture. Two paths before her. One led to love—the country—struggle. The other to pleasure—Broadway—ease. She took them both! Come and see how.

Wednesday, May 12th. Samuel Goldwyn presents Tom Moore in "Duds," by Henry C. Rowland, directed by Tom Mills. The unknown. What is she doing here? Is she also in league with the crooks? Is she too involved in the mystery of the floating boxes with their mysterious treasures?

Thursday, May 13th. Houdini, the famous illusionist and self-liberator, in a thrilling screen melodrama, "Terror Island." To save some sunken treasures of ships that have been sent to the bottom forms one motive for the tale. But there is, in addition, a skull shaped pearl upon which a man's life depends, a lovely girl, kidnaped by her villainous relatives; a submarine built on a startling plan; South Sea Island adventures—enough thrills, it is declared, to make the ordinary adventure picture seem tame in comparison.

E. A. R.

Among the many other attractions of the pretty E. A. R. Theatre is the excellent music. The wonderful double pipe organ under the manipulations of the talented artist, Prof. Robert Stronach gives a regular artistic concert at each performance. It is real music, the kind music lovers love, and even the everyday admirer of sweet sounds enjoy. Everyone that visits the E. A. R. Theatre speaks of the music and it is well worth while going there to hear it alone.

Friday and Saturday, May 7th and 8th. Clara Kimball Young in a drama of emotion, "The Forbidden Woman." Diane Sorel, a celebrated young French artiste, gives but smiles to her countless admirers, though she flirts and coquettes to her heart's content. One of her admirers, Andre De Clermont, unhappy over his love for her, commits suicide in her apartment. Diane is held blameless, though the notoriety of it all nearly crushes her. Fleeing, in dread of her old surroundings, she seeks seclusion in America. But after numerous misunderstandings true love triumphs and the two find the end of the rainbow together. Friday, "The Fly Cop," and Screen Magazine. Saturday, "I'm a Vamp."

Sunday, May 9th. Enid Bennett in a masterpiece of dramatic fiction, "The False Road." This star has done great pictures, but in none of her previous triumphs has she had the opportunities as in this one to display her talents. It is a picture of unrivaled interest and easily Miss Bennett's masterpiece. We heartily recommend it. Also Century comedy, latest episode of "The Lion Man" and International News.

Monday, May 10th. Harry Carey in a story of the old mining country, "Overland Red." Carey is giving us some great pictures these days. "Overland Red" goes right over the top as a human interest drama punctuated with all that is best in the way of outdoor stuff. Humor, pathos, excellent riding and good suspense are mingled in the plot, which was a good one in the first place. The detail shows imagination and is so delightful that one is constantly reminded of the fact that imagination is one important thing so many directors lack. Also Rolin comedy and News Weekly.

Tuesday, May 11th. Lew Cody in "The Beloved Cheater." Lew Cody has never had such an opportunity to display his versatility, and the production is remarkably produced under the master hand of Wm. Christy Cabanne, who is responsible for a long list of screen successes. The cast is a remarkably clever one, including Eileen Percy, Doris Pawn, Jack Mower, Alice Fleming, Frederick Vroom and Andrew Robeson. Also a dandy comedy, "The Nick of Time Baby."

Wednesday, May 12th. An all star cast, including many of the film's favorites, will appear in "Who Is Your Servant?" This production is a master and will hold your entire attention from start to finish. Don't fail to see it. Also Mutt & Jeff and comedy.

Thursday, May 13th. Carlyle Blackwell in "The Third Woman." This is an unusual picture and has many surprises and features that will tax your attention. It's worth seeing. See it. Also a dandy two-reel comedy, "An Uneven Match," and International News.

Woodlawn Theatre

Last two days—Friday and Saturday, May 7th and 8th, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m.—Double feature program. The magnificent picturization, splendidly acted by an all star cast of well known artists, "Blind Youth." The story was adapted for the screen from the play of the same name by Katherine Reed. It deals with the ups and downs of an artist who loves not wisely but too well. He was cast off by two women, his mother and model, only to be rescued for fame by a third on the brink of a lake and fiasco. It's a photoplay in which romance, comedy and drama have their fling at the center of the stage. Put together in the typical Willard Mack manner, which means that it is logical coherent and holds the interest throughout. Also Harold Lloyd in "Eastern-Westerner."

Three days only—Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, May 9th, 10th and 11th—Continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. Big double feature program—that is just what we say it is. Constance Talmadge in a picture that will make you laugh, "In Search of a Sinner." The grouchiest mortal on earth couldn't resist the laughing lure of this bright gingery production. It is a screen comedy of infinite jest and sparkle, sufficiently daring, yet never touching the risque verge, alive with smart action, always holding its interest and terminating as happily and mirthfully as it begins. The heroine role suits Constance in every detail. A merrier young widow never existed and yet through all escapades that heedless and charming creature seems convincing and natural. Also the new funny Mack Sennett comedy, "Fresh from the City." If you see this one and do not go home in lots better humor than you came—then our efforts to entertain you have failed.

Another big four-day event—Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 12th, 13th, 14th and 15th, continuous 2 to 11:30 p. m. Norma Talmadge in one of the most pleasing roles of her career, "She Loves and Lies." When is a wife not a wife? When she wins her husband away from herself. That's what Marie did. He didn't love her, so she quit being his wife and became his affinity and he fell head over heels in love with her. Then he went back to his wife and left her, and that made her glad, for then she won him. A complication of love, romance and laughter.

Auburn Park Hospital May Be Used by the U. S. Government

On the rock-bound coast, especially at places that are considered dangerous to the sea going vessels, every precaution is taken by our government at a tremendous cost, to erect lighthouses and establish life-saving stations. Every precaution is taken by the government to save the lives of any who may have the misfortune to be on an ill-fated ship.

What protection has the unfortunate one who becomes wrecked on the land and needs the services of a life-saving station?

The hospital may be termed the life-saving station on the land, as it has proven a conserver of the babe in thousands of maternity cases. It restores the sick and feeble to health, it makes the weak strong, it gives to the nation one of its greatest assets—health.

The government not only has enough of its own hospitals to adequately fill its needs, but is utilizing other hospitals owned by private and corporated institutions, to fill the need of its employes.

Institutions that do so much for the public and act for the welfare of the people should be encouraged by the people and should be supported by their generosity. In addition to its requiring regular patients, the Auburn Park Hospital is a designated government hospital. The new hospital is to be a hospital for the people and must be supported by the people.

Hospital Nurses Marry

Although the hospitals all over the city are filled to the limit, they are having other troubles besides that of being congested. There is one serious objection the management of the Auburn Park Hospital is having and that is keeping help. It was only recently that two soldier boys who were in the hospital found a warm attachment for two of the nurses and as the result of kindness married the sympathetic nurses.

No one blames the boys, for the hospital has been noted for having girls of attractive disposition, but the management finds that there is sometimes objection in having the boys around. An effort to obtain their names was of no avail.

SOMETHING WORTH WORKING FOR

Life Saving Stations have been built and maintained for years by our government on the seacoast.

The Fire Department and Police Department are maintained by taxation.

The real Life Saving Station that saves more lives than all these combined is the Hospital. Many more lives would be lost without this invaluable service.

The Hospital is maintained by the sick, but must be built by the strong and healthy.

In one of the Chicago Hospitals only four mothers' deaths resulted from Twenty-Four Hundred maternity cases.

The sick are crying for admittance and are daily being turned away because there is no place to go. To slam the door in their face is a crime and that is what is being done today because there is no more room. Eighteen Hundred beds are more urgently needed south of 55th Street, to take care of the present demand.

The New Auburn Park Hospital will be the real Life Saving Station of our community, beautifully situated at 78th Place and Eggleston Avenue, fronting on Lagoon Park.

Volunteers who want to help in your neighborhood will please leave their names and addresses at Headquarters, corner 79th Street and Emerald Avenue.

$500,000 is WHAT WE NEED.

Remember this Hospital will be run without profit—it is your Hospital.

Englebooster Meeting

Last Wednesday afternoon the Englebooster held their monthly meeting in Junior hall. The meeting opened with a speech by the president, Arnold Bryson, which was followed by the presentation of Englewood High School banners by Mr. Armstrong to the delegates who had obtained 100 per cent membership in their division rooms. James Rutherford then gave a short, stirring speech about the Reporter and Carl Zeitler entertained with an excellent violin solo. The rest of the program consisted of a stirring debate, the proposition being, "Shall or shall not the pupils of Englewood High School wear overalls?" The speakers were Mr. Armstrong, Miss Allin, Mr. Sackheim, Bertram Moss and Maurice Fox. The final speaker, Mr. Armstrong, decided the result in favor of the negative side by his convincing argument.

Baseball Game

Englewood's baseball team won its second game of the season when it defeated Lindblom last Thursday afternoon with a score of 23 to 5. Prospects are very promising for the coming season.

Intercouncil Dance

Everybody at Englewood is talking about the intercouncil dance which will take place next Friday afternoon in the boys' gymnasium. Judging from what we hear, a large number will be there.

Championship Game

NATIONAL THEATRE

Next weeks attraction at the National Theatre was selected purely on its box office record, having played to absolutely capacity business in all the better stock houses. Since starting preparations for this production, we can easily see the reason for sell-out business.

The author called his play a comedy—but listen—you will say it has some kick in it, too—the kick being drama—real drama, not the depressing, tearful kind. Nor is it dry, its so cleverly filled with laughs that you wonder what the next twist will be.

Every part is good and there are many, though one of the fathers is a trifle long, you cry with him one minute and laugh at him the next, so he never gets tiresome. While the very manly part of the shoe factory foreman in love with his employers daughter—the daughter herself (a beautiful part), the banker, his daughter, the comidential clerk to the factory owner, his life-long friend, who tries to advise him he's wrong—and who has a sweet little adopted daughter, the factory owner himself and his idolized son whose spending is the cause of most of the tears, all go to making you enjoy your evening.

From a beautiful new home where he forces his daughter to choose between her factory working sweetheart and himself—back to making shoes by hand where he started forty years earlier in life, is the experience of the doting father, while through it all the housekeeper and maid of all work (a part you wont forget soon) and the devoted daughter stand mostly by the father; of course it comes to the proper ending, else there would be no moral, but you can be sure you are going to enjoy "Our Children."

Mother's Day Memories

The greatest asset the nation has is its mothers. Ancient Greece always paid the greatest homage to its mothers for they knew that the success of its greatness lay at the foundation of the home, the mother.

The lives of the greatest artists of the time, as well as the philosophers of that day, were the result of the tender care when children. Plato taught the principles of the kindergartens only later to be worked out by Frobel that children should be taught through plays, songs and dances.

This is the sacred work which lies in the hands of every mother. She is peculiarly adapted as the greatest teacher. It is in her power to mould the destiny of the nation.

The ancients understood heredity and the future influence of parental development far better than the average layman of today. Probably this is the reason why they took for their motto, "know thyself," and had these words inscribed in letters of gold over the temple. Knowing oneself as they surely did they knew that the foundation and success of the government lay in the hands of its women—the future mothers of the nation.

Utmost care was taken previous to the coming of the new born babe. Most beautiful surroundings were deemed very essential. Art, beauty and logic which permeated the nation, were to leave its impress upon the mothers which were to give the world the greatest art, sculptors and philosophy.

Is it any wonder that Greece ruled the world? The secret of it all lay in the hands of the mothers. Is it asking too much that we should help provide a suitable place at the Auburn Park hospital for maternity cases and do our part as citizens to save the lives of our greatest assets, our children? This is something to think about.

Classified Ads Must Be Paid in Advance

At the extremely low rate of two lines for 25 and 10 cents each succeeding line of six words, we cannot afford to open an account or send a collector for bills in this department. No matter if you are a friend of the office boy or the "old man" it won't let you through, everyone must pay in advance and no classified ads will be received by telephone, so don't cuss the telephone girl who answers your query.

Some Romance Needed.

If life has never led you down the paths of romance, go in search of it. Find it in books—lose yourself in romantic plays. For, you need romance. Let it lift you out of the workaday world and refresh you.

Rules for Dancing in the Parks

The South Park Commissioners have issued regulations for dancing and also for regulations of orchestras which is very opportune and should be observed.

All couples must maintain the open position, no "head to head" dancing, no dancing from hips up, dancers must not wear hats while dancing and must be properly dressed.

Orchestras must play music as it is written with no added syncopation and be such as is conducive to proper dancing. The program must be arranged to end no later than 10:45 P. M. with the exception of Saturday when it must end no later than 11:45.

These common sense regulations should appeal to all, and it is hoped the park authorities will not be compelled to resort to drastic measures to enforce them.

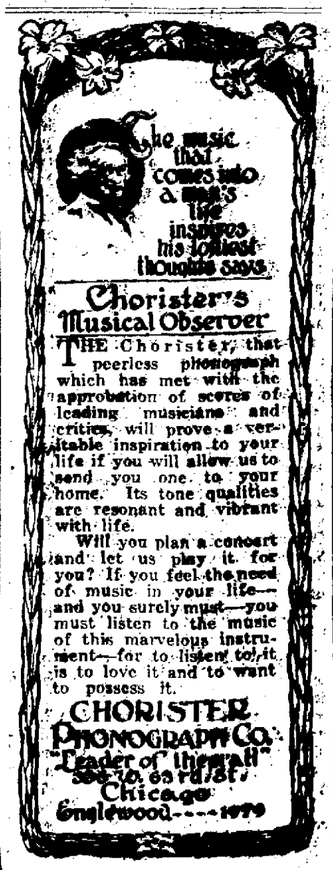
Delays in Delivery Unavoidable

The express drivers strike has caused the parcel post service to become overcrowded and every central postal station in the city is loaded with packages and papers that are constantly accumulating owing to the shortage in help. The postal employes are doing their best, but there is a limit to human endurance, and this poorly paid and unappreciated department of our government are about overwhelmed. We mail everyone of our papers Thursday night at the Englewood postal station and the carriers and clerks do their best to distribute them as promptly as possible. We and they can do no more, hence we must ask the forbearance of our subscribers, especially those of other stations.

Sweet Potato.

It is not known certainly who introduced the sweet potato plant or when. Some authorities believe it to be of East Indian origin, but others more likely hold that it was a native of tropical America.



The Chicago Band Assn. Has Had a "Horn" for Nine Years

The Chicago Band Aassociation membership drive is taking the home stretch on "high." If you want a ride in the band wagon, subscribe for that membership at once. Take a sustaining membership at ten dollars, for your club, business association, lodge, improvement association or trade. There is still time.

The Englewood Woman's Club holds the banner for the initial sustaining membership subscription in the ward. Other clubs are following the good example, or are pledging themselves for a subscription when the club season opens next fall.

Business and improvement associations are subscribing for sustaining memberships, and the host of one-dollar memberships is proving the popularity of the Chicago Band among Thirty-second warders.

Make the kiddies happy by buying ten juvenile buttons at one dollar and giving them to the youngsters.

There is a membership suited to every pocketbook. Don't fail to have one, and wear the famous blue button.

A prize of a fine large flag will be presented to the ward obtaining the most subscriptions.

Daily Thought.

What ardently we wish, we soon believe.—Young.

Just a Few Things Englewood Needs

Better sewers and drainage, especially a larger one on 63rd st. and Wentworth ave. to connect with the larger ones.

Several small parks and playgrounds in the more congested districts, which should be located before property advances to a prohibitive price.

A number of both north and south, and east and west boulevards to run through to the city limits on the north and west and from the lake west.

Optimistic Thought.

Time is a better comforter than reflection.

LINDEN THEATRE

63rd Street at Halsted

The rapidly increasing patronage of the popular Linden Theatre is no doubt due to the fact that Manager Thomas Johnson is ever alive to the requirements of his patrons and is clever enough to put over such productions as appeals to them. This is an art in the film game and "Tom" knows the ins and outs, which linked with service, courtesy and close attention to details, and last, but not least, an exceptionally good orchestra and pipe organ, makes the Linden a very popular photo playhouse.

Friday and Saturday, May 7th and 8th, Harry Carey in a story of the old mining country, "Overland Red." Carey is giving us some great pictures these days. "Overland Red" goes right over the top as a human interest drama punctuated with all that is best in the way of outdoor stuff. Humor, pathos, excellent riding and good suspense are mingled in the plot, which was a good one in the first place. The detail shows imagination and is so delightful that one is constantly reminded of the fact that imagination is one important thing so many directors lack. Also Mutt & Jeff and News Weekly. Saturday matinee extra, "Bimbo the Fearless."

Sunday and Monday, May 9th and 10th, Constance Talmadge in a picture that will make you laugh, "In Search of a Sinner." The grouchiest mortal on earth couldn't resist the laughing lure of this bright, gingery production. It is a screen comedy of infinite jest and sparkle, sufficiently daring, yet never touching the risque verge, alive with smart action, always holding its interest and terminating as happily and mirthfully as it begins. The heroine role suits Constance in every detail. A merrier young widow never existed and yet through all escapades that heedless and charming creature seems convincing and natural. The usual added reels will also be shown.

Tuesday and Wednesday, May 11th and 12th, Norma Talmadge in her latest success, "She Loves and She Lies." A comedy in which lovely Norma Talmadge plays a dual role of her husband's matronly wife and his young and vivacious affinity.

Three days only, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 13th, 14th and 15th, John Barrymore in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde." It's hardly necessary to introduce the story of this famous picture to our Englewood patrons which in novel form has probably been read by everyone the world over.

Coming—Cecil B. DeMille's production, "Why Change Your Wife," with a superb cast, Thomas Meighan, Gloria Swanson, Bebe Daniels and Theodore Kosloff. A definition of divorce, Mr. DeMille says: "A man would much rather have his wife for his sweetheart than any other woman."

Coming—Constance Binney in "The Stolen Kiss." Based on Lucille Van Slyke's novel, "Little Miss By-the-Day." She is a child of royalty, yet she goes out sewing by the day to support herself and the flock of young geniuses she discovers. Then she hides from her lover because she thinks she has lost her beauty. But has she? A big theatrical man thinks not. "And her lover—well, you had better see this picture.

HALSTED THEATRE

Englewood people will soon be given a chance to not only see how wonderfully well Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion of the world, "screens," but to see how excellently he acts, for the first episode of "The Evil Eye," titled "Below the Dead Line," will be presented at the Halsted Theatre, 62nd and Halsted Sts., Wednesday, May 12th.

The great financial interests of Wall Street, alarmed at the frequent robberies of their messengers, in which millions in Liberty Bonds and other negotiable securities are stolen in the street to the extent of millions, find upon inquiry that a vast system of organized plunder exists dominated by a mysterious and sinister recluse known in the underworld as "The Evil Eye."

Would you like to know the "inside" story of the great Wall Street Bond Mystery? Every detail of this gigantic, sensational wholesale plot to rob banks and trust companies of millions is faithfully depicted in "The Evil Eye" by Roy L. McCardell, in which the most popular lightweight champion of the world, Benny Leonard, has the star role. Remember, please that the first episode of this greatest of all serials, titled "Below the Dead Line," will be shown at this theatre Wednesday, May 12th. See the first episode and then follow every one of the fifteen to the finish.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

With every detail entirely new, Messrs. Irons and Clamage's "All Jazz Revue" will be presented at the Englewood theatre commencing Sunday matinee, May 9th. The arrangement of the performance embraces the appearance of Lou Powers, the remarkably clever comedian who possesses unusual singing qualities; the Morette Sisters, delightful clever musical entertainers who are also pretty and shapely, both have been given a prominent part in the play and the value of their unique specialty will be emphasized by the introduction of new songs rendered with new instruments. The gowns worn by these two beauties are said to be strictly modish and of exceedingly beautiful design. Margie Catlin, also popular as a comedienne, is also very prominent and still possesses an abundance of personality. Pat Daly, another comedian of note with singing ability of an uncommon order. Supplementing these features will be seen Pearl Hamilton, Nadine Grey, Ray Kelly, Happy Freyer, Bob Wolfe, Miss Hamilton, who has been furnished with an arrangement of dances calculated to place her on an equality with the most attractive of its kind that has ever been seen in this country.

EMPRESS THEATRE

Never before in the successful history of the Empress theatre has there been a time in which so many big attractions have been booked and given the public. The amount of talent Manager Mitchell has secured for the summer season is a subject of remark in the amusement world, and he goes along in his same old way, seeking even better each week. One feature of the Empress is the excellence of its music and it is the subject of many compliments. Not only does this excellent body of musicians give us the topical music of the day from the latest composers, but back into the classics and among the very best, they go until their repertoire makes one happy to hear from the dizziest shimmy jazz to the heavenly strains of the old composers, who knew nothing but real music. The variety of the Empress entertainments is a feature and commends itself to the worn-out business man or woman or even the leisure class. They have the best of pictures, subjects of travels, as well as the latest released features and in addition have a string of star vaudeville acts that none of the city houses may equal. All that is latest and best, all that is good and beyond the ordinary is found at the Empress and you will see and hear it if you get the habit and follow the crowd.

Vernon Theatre

Mr. Jim Barry of the Vernon feels that the splendid houses he is drawing deserve the best the booking houses have to offer, and the following bill will show what Jimmy Costin has succeeded in putting on the screen at this popular house for the coming week.

Beginning today (Friday), they offer Kathryn MacDonald, that peeress of beautiful stars, in "The Turning Point," of which nothing too good may be said. True love never did run smoothly. She thought him a burglar; he thought her an interloper, and finally she came to love him so dearly that she was willing to send him out of her life for his own good. "The Turning Point," with its possession of splendid emotional acting and novel touches of comedy can really be stamped the most interesting story Miss MacDonald has yet appeared in. A photoplay that will make your heart strings stir.

On Saturday comes Eugene O'Brien, that handsome star, in "A Fool and His Money," followed on Sunday by the latest and best of Alice Brady's offerings, "Sinners," the story of which we have already published in this week's reviews. On Monday Mollie Kinney is the star in "Women Men Forget," and they won't soon forget Mollie as she is the prettiest and most sprightly little lead we have seen for many moons. On Tuesday comes "The Beloved Cheaters," the great picture in which Lew Cody does the greatest stunts possible of belief and all the time keeps the affection of his audience. You must see this to appreciate finese in picture acting. On Wednesday they offer Enid Bennett in a masterpiece of dramatic fiction, "The False Road." This star has done great pictures, but in none of her previous triumphs has she had the opportunities as in this one to display her talents. It is a picture of unrivaled interest and easily Miss Bennett's masterpiece. We heartily recommend it.

Thursday Carlyle Blackwell plays the most captivating role of his career in the great masterpiece, "The Third Woman," one of the plays that lives long in the memory and has less of the maudlin sentiment than most plays of this nature.

The bill throughout is an excellent one and you should see it complete.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe Hippodrome comes to the front again this coming week with a bill that makes people wonder how they can do it. The star attraction for Saturday and Sunday will be the "Bathing Girls Revue," in which the beauties that contested in the Elk's great beauty show will appear in singing, dancing and posing, and there are hosts of pretty girls in rich and rare costumes and a clever bit of real vaudeville. In addition there will also be pictures and five other big acts, making the biggest show in town for the lowest prices.

On Monday and Tuesday they offer "Daredevil Jack," Jack Dempsey's popular serial, in which the world's champion shows his prowess and skill in baffling his wily enemies, all of this *in addition to the regular vaude*ville program. On Tuesday evening the regular professional song publishers' contest takes place and also the contest of local songsters for the pretty floor lamp, an event replete with interest and some excitement.

On Wednesday and Thursday another episode of "The Lost City," the most wonderful serial picture ever presented, and the regular vaudeville bill.

Every Friday night, as well as tonight, we present a grand professional vaudeville revue, consisting of at least four or more acts and all of the best and latest.

The Marlowe plays only the best at all times. The pictures are good and the other attractions afford that variety so welcome to the blase amusement seeker. Come to the Marlowe at any time and enjoy yourself.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

Look Pleasant

We cannot, of course, all be handsome,
And it's hard for us all to be good.
We are sure, now and then, to be lonely,
And we don't always do as we should.
To be patient is not always easy,
To be cheerful is much harder still.
But at least we can always be pleasant,
If we make up our minds that we will.

And it pays every time to be kindly,
Although you feel worried and blue;
If you smile at the world and look cheerful
The world will soon smile back at you.
So try to brace up and look pleasant
No matter how long you are down.
Good humor is always contagious;
You banish your friends when you frown.

Well, how do you like the new shack by this time?

This is a good year for "dark horses" in politics, mind what I say.

With all the politicians down at Springfield next week at the convention, we should have a pretty decent city.

The barbers want to charge 75 cents for a hair-cut; well, that don't go for much. I would give them the price if I had the hair to cut.

Isn't it funny, that the fellow who lectures most on "efficiency," "service" and "system," is a guy that couldn't make a success of running an ice cream stand in tophet?

If the destinies of our great land are in the hands of the kind of ginks that hang around the polls on election day, what chance have we, anyway?

Both political parties are trying to show how much they love the brave soldiers, but they are afraid to pay a bonus that will raise taxes and cause the rest of the land to bolt them.

Casey says: "Ut is betther to hov a policemin call you down, than to hov him take yez oop."

When Casey was asked: "Have you a mother-in-law?" he answered: "No. Oi hov not; boot Oi hov a cousin in jail."

The only difference is a wise man tries adroitly to conceal his ignorance and a fool awkwardly attempts to display his knowledge.

We came pretty near securing that playground park west of Wallace st., north of 63rd. We asked the committee for it and they calmly answered, "Nothin' doin'."

John Foster and the rest of the bunch of aristocrats will soon be going fishing and paying a dollar a pound for what they catch, not to mention the bad colds and wifey's displeasure.

The political campaign is opening and we will have to listen to how the country is going to the everlasting bow-wows if either party is elected, and a fellow has no resource left but to take to the woods —"Wood"—see?

It makes me a bit sore to receive as high as six copies of public documents, and literature on different drives, and know that I can't get enough paper to publish my regular paper.

If Fannie Hurst is right and a five year trial marriage is "moral," why not a week, a day, or even an hour's trial? Such baily rot may go in the movies, but with the sound minded American people it is classed as almost anything but moral.

John D. Rockefeller and son have made the auto owners and gasoline consumers contribute nine million dollars to a church fund. This is fine on their part but maybe the other fellow won't like it as he doesn't get the credit.

When Casey was asked by a very sentimental lady, "Doesn't it make you sad to see women wearing the pretty little birds in their hats?" and the practical Casey answered, "Shure ut isn't the burds thot makes me sad, t'is the bills the milliner puts into me aftherwards."

Our own clever, innocent, child-like little Mary Pickford is now peddling the unhappiness of her married life to the sensational press and hasn't even the excuse of poverty to drive her to this intimate family expose. It looks as if our millionaire Mary is out after all the dough as well as the fame (?) her recent divorce experience will yield.

Musical Service

The board of directors of the Englewood Sunday Evening Club have asked the choir to present an evening of music which they will give next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock with the assistance of the following artists as soloists: Florence Lang, soprano; Mary Welch, contralto; Herman Ashbaucher, tenor; J. Raymond Chittick, basso; Zetta Gay Whitson, violinist; Day Williams, cello; which assures a delightful program for the service. These are the artists for the Easter service and on account of the terrible storm on Easter night many could not attend so that the club thought advisable to give the community another opportunity to hear them and the program will be in part made up of Easter music.

Of the soloists too much can not be said. They are among the very best in the musical life of Chicago.

A large audience is certain and it would be well to come early.

Watch for Airquakes.

An English astronomer of prominence has advanced the theory that there are airquakes, entirely independent of earthquakes, that are caused by the explosion of meteors in the atmosphere.

Dr. Stair's Sermon "Playing the Game"

Beginning next Sunday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, Rev. George R. Stair, pastor of the Englewood Baptist church, Stewart and Englewood ave., will preach a series of six sermons on the general subject, "Playing the Game." These sermons are based on our great national game and will prove of great interest to young and old. Dr. Stair is a former ball player and all around college athlete, and knows his subject thoroughly. The subject of the first sermon of the series, next Sunday evening, is "The Man in the Box." This will be followed by: May 16, "Going Down to First;" May 23, "The Man Who Fanned;" May 30, "Robber, Kill the Umpire;" June 6, "The Crowd of Spectators;" June 13, "What's the Score?"

Dr. Stair has presented this series of addresses in the East to great audiences, and they doubtless will draw large crowds to the Englewood Baptist church for the next six Sunday evenings. There will be a fine musical program each evening. The public is cordially invited, all seats being free.
